

As per the department's policy, we conduct Ph.D. qualifying examinations four times a year. The students who would like to appear for the qualifying exam must submit the duly filled application to the DRC convener and the write-up on the research area as per the deadline indicated in the table below. Along with the application, the concerned Supervisor must submit/send the proposed list of Examiners and Subjects for the Ph.D. qualifying Exam to the DRC convener for approval of DRC. After receiving all the required documents, the DRC may announce the approved courses for the qualifying examination within two weeks from the submission deadline.

Qualifying Examination Phase	Deadline for submitting the application
Phase I: January	November 30th
Phase II: April	January 30th
Phase III: August	April 30th
Phase IV: November	August 30th