

Making Waves at BITS-Pilani

Fashion elimination. Pic: Sidhi Bandekar

BY A STAFF REPORTER
reporters@gomantaktimes.com

Vasco: Director of BITS-Pilani Raghuram Gunaje declared open the Waves 2016, an annual event of BITS-Pilani at Zuarinagar, Vasco on Thursday.

On the occasion, Entertainment Society of Goa (ESG) vice chairman Rajendra Talak was the chief guest, while Council for Student Affairs president Sarthak Singh and Waves convenor Kunal Malviya were also present.

A stunning live contemporary art performance by Kala, the fine arts club depicting The Beatles, stunned the audience with their creative presentation. The momentous inaugural event ended on a bright note with the humorous and very relevant sketch performed by the talented members of Mime, a club unique to Bits-Goa.

On Friday, the event started with Nukkad Natak wherein colleges highlighted Indo-Pak issues at borders. Almost 150 colleges across India are participating in this year's Waves. The campus roadies off-stage event was also held among the students of BITS-Pilani.

Blindfold Art. Pic: Agnes Pinto

BITS-Pilani has come up with unique off-stage event called Blind Art wherein one partner was blind folded and the other handcuffed. The second partner had to give the details of the art which was placed on the back of the first partner who was blind folded. There was amazing coordination and team work.

Another collegiate event was 'Sizzle' which had one participant from each college, who was asked to perform for five minutes. The selected student had to go for a face-off. The results of the Sizzle competition will be announced on Saturday.

The other events included Fash P (Fashion Parade) competition wherein bollywood actor Anupam Kher's Academy in Acting was also a part of the event. The Academy faculty will organise a workshop on acting.

The day one event will see much awaited competition - crowning of Mr and Mrs Waves followed by a scintillating performance by Nuclear.

Street play. Pic: Agnes Pinto