

BITS Pilani Goa presented with 'Tax Deductor of the Year' award

NT NETWORK

Vasco

The Birla Institute of Technology and Science (BITS) Pilani, K K Birla Goa Campus, was awarded the 'Tax Deductor of the Year' award for timely compliance to the Tax Deducted at Source (TDS)/ Tax Collected at Source (TCS) provisions of the Income Tax Act 1961 during the first Tax Deductors' Day 2020 held at Bengaluru. BITS Pilani, Goa Campus was the only academic institute from Karnataka and Goa to have received this recognition.

The citation was received by the associate dean, Planning and Development Cell of Practice School of BITS Pilani Prof Annapoorna Gopal on behalf of the Goa campus.

The Income Tax Department through its office of Principal Chief Commissioner of Income Tax for Karnataka and Goa Region organised the first Tax Deductors' Day 2020 on February 5 at Ambedkar Bhavan in Bengaluru and felicitated organisations for their on-time contribution to the Income Tax fund.

Eminent physician and cardiologist from Bangalore Dr B Raman Rao, a Padma Shri Awardee was the chief guest while former director of Indian Institute of Science (Bangalore), Dr Padmanabhan Balaram, a Padma Bhushan Awardee was the guest of honour.

The Principal Chief Commissioner of Income Tax S K Mittal and Chief Commissioner of Income Tax (TDS) Ajit Kumar Sinha were also present.

Video messages by distinguished chemist Prof C N Rao; International cricketer Rahul Dravid and other renowned personalities were screened during the event, which also included cultural programmes, slogan competition on Income Tax and Nation Building, quizzes, etc.