

Tech session held for school students at BITS campus: The computer science and information systems (CSIS) department of BITS Pilani, K K Birla, Goa campus, hosted 30 class XI students of science stream of MES Higher Secondary School as part of Scientific Social Responsibility programme. The event was funded by the Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB), government of India, to Prof Basabdatta Sen Bhattacharya (BSB) and Prof Sujith Thomas – both faculty members at CSIS department of BITS Pilani Goa campus. The theme of the technology and science session was brain inspired computing, and was conducted by the Brain Inspired Neural Networks (BINN) lab led by professor Basabdatta Sen Bhattacharya.