

'Waves 2016' at BITS Goa from tomorrow

PANAJI: BITS Goa's annual 3-day cultural festival 'Waves' themed 'Tides of Time', will get underway from November 4-6, at the college campus, says a press note.

Celebrating its 10th anniversary, Waves 2016 promises to catapult into your fond childhood and to nostalgic memories of the sheer adventure of the 90s. This year's fest will feature Bollywood rockstar Amit Trivedi and arguably India's hottest DJ Nucleya. While popular comedians Kenneth Sebastian and Zakir Khan will take the stage to lighten up the mood in the Waves Comedy Night (which has featured the likes of AIB, EIC and TVF in the past). Furthermore, the Red Bull Tour Bus will be making a pit stop at Waves as The F16s. Waves lives up to its reputation as a majestic cultural fest, with the immensely grandiose Big-3 events - Natyanjali, FashP or Mr and Ms Waves, judged by known names from the industry and featuring talented participants from colleges across the country. Furthermore, the slapstick comedy nights wherein the comedians and artistes perform stand-up routines while Searock, the much talked about rock show-down with the country's best rock bands that have already blasted their way through the national eliminations. Other events lined-up are Contention and Moot Court, Poetry Slams, Open Mic and JAMs, special Waves Open Quiz, photography and art contests, 'Sizzle' and 'Just Duet', Skime, Rangmanch and Nukkad Natak and many more, adds the press note.
